

■ Criminology and Criminal Justice

Program Advisors: Collin Lau, Dr. Janet Davidson, Dr. Joseph Allen

Degrees offered are Associate of Science (A.S.) and Bachelor of Science (B.S.).

The associate and baccalaureate degrees are designed to prepare the undergraduate student academically for careers in administration, criminal justice, criminology, law enforcement, probation and parole, and public safety. The Criminology and Criminal Justice major emphasizes the development of knowledge, critical thinking, as well as oral and written communication skills. Students are encouraged to examine the American justice system pertaining to its function, equality, and effectiveness from social, ethical, and political perspectives

Associate of Science

The Associate of Science degree requires the completion of a minimum of 60 semester hours of credit with a grade point ratio of at least 2.0 (C) for all course work completed at Chaminade. The degree also requires completion of the general education core. At least 15 semester hours of course work must be completed at Chaminade.

Upon completion of the Criminal Justice Associates Degree students will demonstrate an understanding of:

1. The basic complexities of the American criminal justice system.
2. Race, gender and social class and the causes of crime.
3. Criminal Justice research
4. Basic techniques of crimes scene investigation and the law of evidence

Associate of Science Degree Requirements

The following Criminology and Criminal Justice courses must be completed for an Associate of Science degree in Criminology and Criminal Justice: CJ 151, CJ 201, CJ 220, CJ 223, CJ 270, and CJ 291.

At least 9 semester hours of course work must be completed at Chaminade.

Bachelor of Science

The Bachelor of Science degree requires the completion of a general education core as well as a major field of concentration. The B.S. degree requires the completion of a minimum of 120 semester hours of credit. An average grade of 2.0 (C) or better must be earned for all courses completed at Chaminade. An average grade of 2.0 (C) or better is also required in the major. One year of residence, normally the senior year (30 semester hours), is required. At least half of the upper division credits required for the major must be completed at Chaminade.

Students graduating with a bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice will demonstrate an understanding of:

1. The inherent complexities and day-to-day operations of the American criminal justice system.
2. Criminal Justice research
3. Basic rights guaranteed to each individual by both state and federal constitutions and laws.
4. Race, gender and social class and the causes of crime.
5. Forensic science and prosecutorial law in criminal investigations

Bachelor of Science Degree Requirements

The following Criminology and Criminal Justice courses must be completed for a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminology and Criminal Justice:

Students must complete the pre-major requirements of: CJ 151, CJ 201, CJ220, CJ 223, CJ 270, CJ 291.

Students must also complete the major requirements of: CJ 315, CJ 375, CJ 423, CJ 424, CJ 432, CJ 451, CJ 470, CJ 490, CJ 491; and one of the following: PSY 321, PSY 424, SO 401, or SO 407.

Behavioral Sciences Division Requirement: CJ 327. Prerequisite: CJ 151

Minor Requirements:

A minor in Criminology and Criminal Justice requires CJ 151 or CJ 201, CJ 315 and a minimum of 12 additional hours of upper division Criminology and Criminal Justice courses.

Recommended Interdisciplinary Course: Criminology and Criminal Justice majors are encouraged to take CJ/RE 435 as their upper division interdisciplinary course.

Federal Law Enforcement Recommended Courses:

Federal law enforcement agencies are more specialized than other law enforcement agencies in their recruitment requirements. Hence, students interested in pursuing a career in federal law enforcement should consider elective courses in business, including the following courses: AC 201, AC 202, AC 306, FIN 301, and BU 362.

Internship criteria for Criminology and Criminal Justice students

The following minimum standards have been established for acceptance into the Internship Program:

1. The student must have completed a minimum of 24 resident credit hours at Chaminade.
2. The student must have completed a minimum total of 90 credit hours.
3. The student must be a major or minor in Criminology and Criminal Justice.
4. The student must have a minimum GPA of 2.75 for all Criminology and Criminal Justice coursework.
5. The student is subject to an interview with the Internship Coordinator and a participating agency representative to determine acceptance and placement by both.
6. The student may not be currently employed by the agency with which the student proposes to do the internship, subject to the approval of the Internship Coordinator.
7. The student must meet any specific qualifications as determined by the participating agency.
8. Student must successfully complete the following Criminology and Criminal Justice courses or their equivalents prior to being considered for an internship opportunity: CJ 151, CJ 270, CJ 375, CJ 423, CJ 424, and PSY 315. Equivalent substitutions must be approved by the Program Director and/or Internship Coordinator.
9. The student must successfully complete the following general education courses or their equivalents prior to being admitted to the internship program: EN 101, EN 102, COM 101, three credits of a 100- or 200-level history course, and three credits of a natural science course.

Police Academy Credit

Students enrolling who are actively employed in law enforcement may receive up to 18 credit hours for their academy instruction based on an examination of the academy curriculum.

The curriculum of the HPD academy is approved by three police accreditation agencies, based on national standards and in consultation with Chaminade faculty. Instructors are highly qualified. This is not a “life’s experience” substitution but rather recognition that HPD has courses in their academy curriculum comparable to the following in content and hours of study. There is a time factor of 10 years. Any academy training prior to that time would be dated and unacceptable.

Those students who are Honolulu Police Department (HPD) officers will receive credit for the following courses:

Four lower level courses

CJ 151 – Criminal Justice Systems

CJ 220 - Criminal investigation

CJ 223 - Introduction to Law

CJ 270 – Supervision and Management

Two upper level

CJ 423 - Criminal Law

CJ 432 - Law enforcement

Pre-law Curriculum

Pre-law studies are designed to provide a broad liberal arts background which will expand the student's knowledge base and develop the analytical skills necessary for success in law school. The recommended curriculum consists of courses in criminal justice, communication, English, history, philosophy, and political science. A student in this program will be challenged to develop his or her critical thinking, research, and oral and written communications skills.

The pre-law student will select a major field of study in any of the majors offered University wide. All majors require electives and those electives can be chosen in areas other than the student’s major field of study. Students who choose to designate themselves as pre-law would select courses with the assistance of their pre-law advisor from the following list:
